The diagram illustrates a custom keyboard layout for a 60% keyboard. The layout is organized into four rows. The first row consists of a dashed box, keys 1 through 5, a gap, keys 6 through 0, and another dashed box. The second row features a dashed box, function keys F1 through F5, a gap, function keys F6 through F10, and a dashed box. The third row includes a dashed box, keys with symbols (~, =, [, and], a gap, and a dashed box. The bottom row shows a dashed box, two additional dashed boxes, a gap, two more dashed boxes, and a key labeled "BASE" which is highlighted with a solid border.
